Auto-renewal service

Auto-renewal status: On

- The policy will be automatically renewed upon expiry. Prior to the policy's expiration, the policyholder will receive the terms of renewal for review.
- The payment for the policy renewal will be automatically debited using the credit card information you provided during application process.
- The policyholder may turn off the auto-renewal function at renewal period or update the credit card details at any time.
- By turning on auto-renewal, the policyholder agrees to the Terms and Conditions.

Auto-renewal service terms and conditions

1. If the policyholder agrees to the auto-renewal service, the policy will be automatically renewed, and payment will be automatically charged to the credit card provided at the time of new business issuance 15 days before the policy expiry date.
2. The policyholder can manage the auto-renewal service settings, such as opt-in / opt-out and updating credit card details, through our e-Service website.
3. We will send email notifications to the policyholder to remind the upcoming credit card expiry dates, successful payments, and failed payments.
4. Please note that we will send a renewal notification via email at least 30 days prior to the policy expiry date, which will include renewal details such as the premium amount and renewal period. If the policyholder does not intend to renew, they can log into our eService website to cancel the auto-renewal service.
5. Once a policy is renewed, and the premium is charged, the insurance coverage is valid as of the inception date. Any cancellation after inception is subject to a minimum premium, according to the relevant insurance product's terms and conditions listed in the policy wording.
